

Café 704 with Tumbao Bravo

Saturday, Sept. 14, 2019 8 pm

Doors open 7:30 pm

Suggested Donation:
$8 per person or $15 for two

Sweet treats, sodas, bottled water and hot beverages are available for donations.

The Café is in a converted warehouse behind Motel 6.

http://interfaithspirit.org/cafe-704-coffeehouse/

Interfaith Center for Spiritual Growth

704 Airport Boulevard
Ann Arbor, MI 48108

Tumbao Bravo

Winner of 3 Detroit Music Awards, bandleader Paul VornHagen will bring a 4 piece version of this exciting combo to Cafe 704 performing the authentic rhythms of Cuba with the harmonics of jazz. A program of mostly original compositions that appear on their award winning recordings as well as songs by Mongo Santamaria. Paul on sax/flute/latin percussion/vocals, Olman Piedra on congas/timbales, Gary Schunk on piano and Pat Prouty on bass. Mambo, cha cha cha, rumba and bolero. Danceable and musically rewarding . Go to www.tumbaobravo.com for more info

"Each bandmember brings a high level of comfort and experience with Afro-Cuban music...a colorful and exciting repertoire." Chip Boaz, Latin Jazz Corner