

Hello World,

There is only One God. I know and witness it everywhere! The beauty and colors of every moment, of every person, place and thing express infinitely. The essence of all things is Love and Light. All that I behold reflects that which is within and throughout...a never-depleted, a forever supplied deep well of Peace, Strength, Stability and Flexibility. The Infinite Flow of Light and Love feeds and nurtures all healing changes, compels balanced evolution to proceed with quiet ease and grace, with loud, harmonious song and voice, with beautiful, glorious visions of art and space. God is omniscient flow, change and evolution. Light is omnipresent, fills and expands, heals and supports all aspects of the Universe with the omnipotence of Love.

And IT resides right here in me. All that God is, I AM. I am fully and beautifully animated with all that God is. I am unified with all the power, health, love, intelligence and light that God is. I walk, think and breathe every moment of my day knowing that I create in conjunction with the Love and Law of Spirit!

In this present moment I declare for me and my world that LOVE PREVAILS. It is The Truth that emanates and vibrates in all hearts. The Light of Spirit shines Itself in all places at all times! I know and see Happiness, Peace, Prosperity, Harmony, Comfort and Confidence as the natural birth right of all expressions of Spirit. Living, loving, healing, creating, caring, accepting, and adapting flow effortlessly throughout our communities, nations and our beloved planet. People show and express their divine magnificence as they walk a path of togetherness, creativity, trust and safety. At all times and in all spaces, the path is lit with God's Joy, Prosperity, Wealth, Health, Peace and Wisdom. All doubts and fears are laid to the side. Just as the Light dispels the dark, so does the Light dispel the fears and worries of our human condition. The Love of Spirit lights our path as we walk and thrive together, as we express trust in our divine, natural instinctual and intuitive gifts, and as we construct a world that works for everyone.

For all this I AM grateful. These declarations and more are revealed in all of our lives right here and right now!! I rest in my deep gratitude and trust that they are easily, timely and serendipitously expressed.

I release these words into the Law of Mind and simply and gratefully say "AND SO IT IS!"
