PAUL VORNHAGEN & ARON KAUFMAN

World Music Duo

Saturday, November 9, 2024, 7-9 pm

“Welcome to our world. A journey through the rhythms of the Middle East, Africa, Cuba, Trinidad, Jazz and more. Aron Kaufman and Paul Vornhagen first met in the early 1980s as members of the iconic Ann Arbor band, the Lunar Glee Club, performing all original compositions with world rhythms. In 2018, Aron acquired a highly resonant instrument called the "RAV Drum" that inspired a collaboration as a woodwind/drum duo. Without chordal instruments to define harmonics, a freedom to explore the interplay of rhythm and melody ensued.

Paul is the leader of two critically acclaimed bands (Tumbao Bravo and his Quartet) as well as a private music teacher, composer, producer and recording artist. Winner of six Detroit Music Awards, his band recordings have been featured on many NPR programs and several film sound tracks. Aron is a nationally honored educator, accomplished composer and, most recently, leader of his own sextet, The Dream Ensemble, with a new 2018 recording, "Firefly's Dream". In 2017, he was commissioned to compose music for the documentary film, "Cuba's Forgotten Jewels."
